MUST HAVE MONEY.

Secretary Carlisle Furnishes a Treasury Statement.

AN APPEAL TO THE SENATE.

Unless That Body Takes Some Action to Replenish the Treasury It Will Be Necessary For Him to Issue Bonds Under the Existing Laws—A Letter to Senator Voorhees on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The following letter was forwarded by Secretary Carlisle to Senator Voorhees, chairman of the finance committee of the senate:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF SECRETARY,
WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.

Hon. D. W. Voorhees, Chairman Committee on Finance, United States Senate: DEAR SIR—In compliance with your verbal request I have the honor to submit for the consideration of the finance committee statements showing the actual condition of the treasury on the 12th day of the present month and an estimate of the receipts and expenditures during the remainder of this month and the month of February. It will be seen from the statements that there is an urgent necessity for such immediate action as will replenish the coin reserve, and enable this department to continue the payment of public expenses and discharge the obligations of the government to pensioners and other lawful creditors.

When my annual report was prepared it was estimated that the expenses during the current fiscal year would exceed the receipts to the amount of about $28,000,000, and I asked congress for authority to issue and sell bonds, or other forms of obligations, to an amount not exceeding $50,000,000, bearing a low rate of interest and having a reasonably short time to run, to enable the secretary of the treasury to supply such deficiencies as might occur in the revenues. The estimate then made was based upon the assumption that the worst effects of our financial disturbances had already been realized and there would be a substantial increase in the revenues for the remainder of the year. While it was not believed that the deficiency then actually existing would be supplied by increased revenues in the future, it was hoped that no additional deficiency would occur; but the receipts and expenditures during the month of December and up to the 12th day of the present month show that the estimate of a deficiency of $28,000,000 at the close of the year was much too low.

The actual receipts and expenditures during each month of the year, and the monthly deficiencies, have been as follows:

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES FISCAL YEAR.

July, 1893, receipts, $30,905,776.19; expenditures, $30,675,895.00; excess expenditures, $230,881.19. August, 1893, receipts, $29,890,885.30; expenditures, $30,305,228.48; excess expenditures, $4,414,343.18. September, 1893, receipts, $24,582,750.10; expenditures, $25,478,010.17; excess expenditures, $895,259.67. October, 1893, receipts, $24,553,894.97; expenditures, $29,588,892.34; excess expenditures, $5,034,997.37. November, 1893, receipts, $23,979,400.81; expenditures, $31,302,026.41; excess expenditures, $7,322,625.60. December, 1893, receipts, $22,812,027; expenditures, $30,058,260.51; excess expenditures, $7,246,238.51. January, 1894, 12 days, receipts, $10,369,939.37; expenditures, $16,263,655.14; excess expenditures, $5,893,715.77. Total receipts, $162,085,384.05; expenditures, $205,643,428.99; excess expenditures, $43,558,044.94.

If the same average monthly deficiencies should continue, the total differences between receipts and expenditures on the 30th of June next will be $78,167,542. According to the best estimate that can be made the total receipts during the present month and the month of February will be $41,900,000, and the total expenditures will be $60,300,000, showing a deficiency during the two months of $18,400,000; but this does not include any payments on account of the sugar bounty, claims for which to the amount of nearly $5,000,000 have already been presented, and are now under investigation in the department.

The assets of the treasury, and the current liabilities in excess of certificates and treasury notes outstanding, were as follows on the 12th day of the present month:

ASSETS.

Gold	$74,108,140
Silver dollars and bullion	8,092,287
Fractional silver coin	12,133,903
United States notes	5,031,327
Treasury notes of 1890	2,476,000
National bank notes	14,026,735
Minor coin	988,825
Deposits in banks	15,470,863
Total cash assets	$132,327,889

LIABILITIES.

Bank note 5 per cent fund	7,198,219
Outstanding checks and drafts	5,163,917
Disbursing officers' balances	23,176,149
Postoffice department account	3,897,741
Undistributed assets of failed national banks	1,927,727
District of Columbia account	143,613
Total agency account	40,996,893
Gold reserve	74,015,749
Net balance	11,228,374

Total liabilities $183,377,889

It will appear from this statement that the coin reserve has been reduced to $74,108,140, and it is evident from the condition of the treasury that the department will have no means to defray the ordinary expenses of the government unless a large part of the payments are hereafter made out of that fund. If this is done, the coin reserve will be reduced by the 1st of February to about $60,601,864, a sum wholly inadequate for the purpose for which it was created.

On account of this critical condition of the treasury I have considered it my duty, in addition to the earnest recommendations contained in my annual report, to appear twice before your committee, and, after full explanations of the situation, urge promised legislative action on this subject.

With the permission of the committee I have prepared and presented for its consideration a bill which, if promptly passed, would, in my opinion, meet all the requirements of the situation, by providing the necessary means for defraying the public expenses and replenishing the coin reserve to such an extent as to assure the maintenance of the parity of all forms of all United States currency.

While this proposed measure of relief has not yet been disposed of or considered by the committee, the great differences of opinion which are known to exist in both branches of congress concerning the propriety of granting additional or amended authority to issue bonds in any form or for any purpose, render it doubtful whether new legislation upon the subject can be secured in time to provide the means which are imperatively demanded in order to preserve the credit and honor of the government.

Authority to issue and sell bonds, for the purpose of maintaining specie payments, was expressly conferred upon the secretary of the treasury by the act of Jan. 14, 1875, but it has not been exercised since 1879, and, on account of the high rate of interest provided for, and the length of time such bonds would have to run, I have not been satisfied that such an emergency existed as would clearly justify their issue. But the necessity for relief at this time is so urgent, and the prospect of material improvement in the financial condition of the government is so problematical that, unless authority to issue and sell shorter bonds, or other obligations, bearing a lower rate of interest than that specified in the existing law, is granted by congress at a very early day, I shall feel constrained by a sense of public duty to exercise the power already conferred, to the extent, at least, of providing an adequate coin reserve. If this action should be taken, congress ought, nevertheless, to provide promptly for the deficiency in the revenues during the current fiscal year, and I will from time to time advise your committee of the condition of the treasury, in order that this subject may receive due consideration.

I have the honor to be yours very respectfully,
J. G. CARLISLE, Secretary.

Section 3701, of the revised statutes, provides that "all stocks, bonds, treasury notes and other obligations of the United States shall be exempt from taxation by or under state or municipal or local authority."

On account of this general statute, it was not proposed in the bill which the secretary of the treasury laid before the senate finance committee in the early part of last week to make any provision concerning the taxation of the bonds, which he is asking congress to authorize him to issue.

The house of representatives, by a rule adopted some time ago, has dedicated all its time to the 29th of the present month to the consideration of the Wilson tariff bill, and therefore it would have been impossible for the secretary of the treasury to procure any legislation in that body before that time, and for this reason Secretary Carlisle thought it necessary to make the application first to the committee on finance of the senate, which, he hopes, will act upon the measure in time to provide the necessary means for the government.

The bill, which is referred to in the foregoing letter, is as follows:

An act to amend Section 3, of "An act to provide for resumption of specie payments," approved Jan. 14, 1875. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, that Section 3, of "An act to provide for resumption of specie payments," approved Jan. 14, 1875, be, and the same is hereby so amended that in lieu of the descriptions of bonds therein authorized, the secretary of the treasury is hereby authorized to issue from time to time, as he may deem necessary, and in such form as he may prescribe, coupon or registered bonds of the United States in denominations of 25 dollars and multiples thereof, redeemable in coin at the pleasure of the United States after — years from date, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 3 per cent per annum, payable quarterly in coin, and to sell the same at not less than par in coin; and the proceeds of such bonds shall be held and used to maintain the parity of all forms of money coined or issued by the United States, but the secretary of the treasury is hereby authorized to use from time to time such part of such proceeds as may be necessary to supply deficiencies in the public revenues during the fiscal year 1894.

Section 2.—A sum sufficient to carry the provisions of this act into effect is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Suing For Damages Done by a Spark.

KOKOMO, Ind., Jan. 16.—A damage suit for $75,000 against the Wabash railway has been brought by the Logansport Manufacturing company, with 23 insurance companies as co-plaintiffs. Suit arises from the destruction of a spoke factory by fire, communicated by locomotive sparks.

Attempted Train Wrecking.

BREMEN, Ind., Jan. 16.—An attempt was made to derail the fast express on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad in the marsh three miles from here last night. The engine struck a log that had been placed across the track, but was stopped before any damage was done. There is no clew.

Mosque of Damascus Burned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Private letters received here say the great Mosque of Damascus was burned several weeks ago, though the sultan seems to have desired to keep the news from the outside world.

Shot His Wife and Suicided.

SISTERVILLE, W. Va., Jan. 16.—Edward Hoffman, crazed with drink and jealousy, shot and killed his wife here, then suicided. Hoffman was formerly a steamboat cook.

HORNBLOWER'S NAME REJECTED.

The Senate Spends the Day in Executive Session—Tariff Debate in the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The legislative session of the senate was short and uneventful, nearly the whole day being devoted to executive session in consideration of the Hornblower nomination. The morning hour was consumed by the introduction of petitions and bills.

In executive session Senator Hill opened the fight against the confirmation of Hornblower for associate justice of the supreme court, and Senator Vilas of Wisconsin, the only Democratic member of the judiciary committee who supported Mr. Hornblower in the committee room, made a strong appeal for confirmation. After a general discussion, lasting throughout the afternoon, Hornblower's nomination was rejected by a majority of 6.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—The consideration of the tariff debate under the five-minute rule was begun yesterday. Only three amendments were disposed of, none of material moment. The attempts of Messrs. DeForest and Sperry, Democrats of Connecticut, to secure the adoption of an amendment increasing the duty on Sumatra cigar wrappers to the present rates, was defeated. The debate concluded with a brilliant tilt between Mr. Cockran and Mr. Reed.

Eighteen Years For Assault.

FRANKLIN, Ind., Jan. 16.—Perry Gilman got 18 years for assaulting Viola Shafer, 13. He attempted suicide by hanging after receiving sentence, but the rope broke.

Stabbed in the Neck.

PETERSBURG, Ind., Jan. 16.—Robert Simmons, while intoxicated, attempted to stab William Beerwart, inflicting a wound on his neck. Simmons was arrested.

CONDENSED NEWS.

Short Items From Various Parts of the Country.

A race war is brewing in Morriam county, Kan., over the mixed school question. The Republicans of Iowa have nominated Mr. Gear for the United States senate.

The Santa Fe employees are on the verge of despair, having received no wages since October.

An epidemic of measles is causing much alarm at Kansas City. Over 1,000 cases have been reported.

The Pullman Palace Car company is reducing its force of employees all over the country where travel is light.

The strike of the plateglass workers at Charleroi, Pa., is growing serious and bloodshed is feared if nonunion men are put to work.

James Milton Dooley, president of the Third National bank of Bloomington, Ill., died of nervous prostration. He leaves a widow and 10 children.

Butt, Young & Company, wholesale hat dealers of Knoxville, have filed deeds of trust to secure creditors to the amount of $60,000. Assets not given.

Two thousand miners went to work Monday in the second pool, in the Pennsylvania pits, located principally between McKeesport and Elizabeth.

Seven United States prisoners escaped from the county jail at Huntsville, Ala. They knocked the jailer down while taking in coal. None have been recaptured.

The fire at the W. Helms company snuff mills at Helmetta, N. J., caused a loss of $100,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. The mills are valued at $200,000 and employ about 400 hands.

A hitherto respectable farmer named Johnson, residing with his family about 10 miles east of Springfield, Mo., was shot and instantly killed while resisting arrest. He was found stealing.

H. G. Fuller of Falkton, S. D., judge of the Sixth circuit, has been appointed to the supreme bench of South Dakota, vice J. C. Bennett, deceased. L. G. Gaffy of Pierre succeeds Fuller as circuit judge.

Herman Hawkins, a 5-year-old boy of Louisville, shot and killed his 13-year-old brother while the latter was asleep. The boy had obtained a pistol that was under his mother's pillow and was playing with the weapon.

The president has granted a pardon to J. T. D. Meredith of West Virginia, convicted of passing counterfeit money, on the ground that longer imprisonment will endanger his life; also to J. A. Edmonds, alias Ed Edmonds of Kentucky, convicted of violating the revenue laws.

Fire at the Standard Oil company's works at Parkersburg, W. Va., caused by an explosion, destroyed naphtha and sulphuric acid to the value of $1,000. An employee named Johnson narrowly escaped cremation. He was standing within a foot of the agitator when the explosion occurred, but escaped with some serious burns.

Confessed Murder.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 16.—Rudolph J. Peckmann, proprietor of the Queen City hotel, in which Mrs. Schrumms was found dead after the building was partly destroyed by fire last Friday morning, has confessed that he strangled his aged guest for the purpose of robbing and afterward fired the room. He failed to secure the woman's money. Peckmann is now in jail.

His Sweetheart an Accomplice.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—The suit of McCoy & Underwood against the Exchange National bank reveals the fact that Robert C. Poston, the swindling cashier of the plaintiffs, used his sweetheart, Hattie C. Patch, as his accomplice in obtaining $12,502.

Horse Thief Breaks Jail.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 16.—William Richardson, a noted horse thief and desperado of the upper Kanawha valley, broke jail at Glenville, Gilmore county, Saturday, and made his escape. The connivance of prominent county officials is hinted at.

BEET SUGAR.

Its Producers Opposed to the Wilson Tariff Bill.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Henry T. Oxnard of Nebraska, president of the American Beet Sugar association, is at the Waldorf hotel. Naturally he is opposed to that portion of the Wilson tariff bill which proposes to reduce the bounty on sugar produced in this country from beets.

"I take the position," he said, "that congress has no moral right to repeal that part of the McKinley act which places the bounty on sugar, because a definite time was fixed for it to operate. We regard this as in the nature of a contract."

Mr. Oxnard said that the quantity of beet sugar produced in this country in 1893, according to the closest estimate, was 25,000 tons, an increase of about 12,000 tons over the previous year's production. He has been in Washington making a protest against the repeal of the sugar bounty paragraph of the tariff act of 1890.

SHOT HIM DEAD.

Fate of an Unknown Tramp Near Lawrenceburg, Ind.

LAWRENCEBURG, Jan. 16.—Mitchell Shanks, director of the public schools at Pello, Ind., five miles west of here, Sunday night shot and instantly killed an unknown man who had been despoiling the schoolhouse. In company with a number of other citizens Shanks went to the school building and ran the fellow out.

Shanks started in pursuit and called to him to stop. The stranger turned and shouted "No, you don't!" at the same time thrusting a revolver in Shanks' face. The latter, quick as a flash, threw up his arm and drew his own revolver, shooting the unknown man in the head and killing him on the spot.

Indications are that the fellow was a professional burglar and made the schoolhouse his headquarters at night. He has not been identified.

Big Prices For Trotters.

BUFFALO, Jan. 16.—Buffalo last season started the trotting world by hanging up $90,000 in purses for a two weeks' trotting meeting. This year it is proposed to have another big meeting. Purses aggregating $75,000, and perhaps more, will be offered. There will be several big stake events, the details concerning which have not yet been fully arranged. The dates chosen are from July 31 to Aug. 11, inclusive. It is more than likely that the great $20,000 pacing purse will be repeated this year. This is the race which caused such great excitement last year, and because of which Buffalo went broke backing Mascot.

Jackson Roasts Corbett.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 16.—Peter Jackson, the colored pugilist, was in Pittsburgh en route to Baltimore and was very angry at Corbett's letter, in which it was stated that in the fight with Jackson in California, the club officials and referee were against him (Corbett) and that he was defrauded out of the fight. Jackson said this was a falsehood pure and simple and that later Corbett refused to accept $7,000 added to the stakes offered by the California club to fight the battle out later, but instead pulled down his $2,500 coming from the drawn contest and skipped out of town.

Reduction Accepted.

TOLEDO, Jan. 16.—A reduction of 10 per cent in the wages of all the employees of the Columbus, Hocking Valley and Toledo railway receiving more than $50 per month went into effect yesterday. The men have accepted the reduction with the understanding that it is temporary, and that a restoration will be made as soon as the improvement in business justifies that step.

Daring Deed of a Pickpocket.

HAMILTON, O., Jan. 16.—A daring piece of pocket picking occurred here yesterday. Charles Diefenbach, the jeweler at 124 High street, sent his office boy, Thomas North, 17, to the First National bank, a short distance away, with $700 to deposit. Between the store and the bank the boy's pocket was picked.

Starving in the Northwest.

MONTREAL, Jan. 16.—The reports of starvation in Manitoba and the northwest are being verified. Advice states that hundreds of destitute people are walking the streets of Winnipeg and the distress is terrible. To make matters worse the Canadian Pacific has discharged a large number of men.

Postal Clerk Suing For Damages.

ELYRIA, O., Jan. 16.—W. W. Massey of this city has commenced suit against the Big Four railroad for $51,217.13, for injuries received in a wreck near Sidney last year. He was a postal clerk, and was so badly injured that he lost his position. He is now unable to stand on his feet for any length of time.

Murdered, Robbed and Cremated.

HELENA, Mon., Jan. 16.—Early Sunday morning Patrick Connelly, a watchman on the Northern Pacific bridge over the Yellowstone, near Livingston, was robbed, murdered and his cabin burned to hide the crime. Connelly was known to have considerable money in his cabin. The money is gone.

A Boy Holds Up a Stranger.

ATHENS, O., Jan. 16.—Ed West, a colored desperado of this town, held up a stranger by the name of Joseph Brown, on Washington street yesterday afternoon in broad daylight, and robbed him of $5. The robber is only 18 years of age. He was arrested last night.

Startling Rumor Denied.

GREEN FORK, Ind., Jan. 16.—Friends of Charles Evans, who died in Danville, Ill., and whose body was sent to this city for burial, deny the story that he was shot. A local physician has made affidavit to the effect that the death was caused by congestion of the brain.

INSURGENT VICTORY

Several Battles Have Been Fought in Brazil.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE KILLED.

The Exact Number Unknown at Present, as the Different Reports Greatly Conflict—The Island of Engenho Captured by the Rebels—All Prisoners Captured Are Immediately Strangled.

RIO JANEIRO, Jan. 16.—The insurgent forces have captured the island of Engenho, killing 40 of the government garrison and taking 60 prisoners.

The insurgent warship Aquidaban has taken up a station in front of the customhouse and is making preparations for the landing of troops.

The insurgents in Rio Grande do Sul are burning villages and are strangling all the prisoners who fall into their hands.

The engagement between the rebel vessel, Guanabara, supported by the guns of Cabras island, on Saturday last, when that small warship attacked the government positions along the shore, was very hot while it lasted. The Guanabara had the best of the fight, running close in shore and making very effective use of her guns, which caused the government forces to retire from their positions, leaving a number of dead and wounded behind them.

Peixoto's officers, while the Guanabara was within easy distance of the shore, suddenly made an attack upon her by means of a number of small boats filled with troops. But this movement was unsuccessful, as the Guanabara opened such a deadly fire upon them that she easily beat off the boarding parties, killing a number of the soldiers who manned the small craft.

As in all these engagements, it is difficult to get at the right facts in regard to the number of killed and wounded, but the rebels claim that at least 100 of President Peixoto's troops were killed or wounded during the attack made by the Guanabara by the small boats and that probably as many more were killed and wounded during the rebel ship's attack upon the land batteries.

On the other hand, the government reports say that the losses during Saturday's action were trivial and that the insurgent reports of the number of killed and wounded are grossly exaggerated.

MINISTER'S CLOSE CALL.

Rev. Curnick's Experience With a Maniac at Springfield, O.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Jan. 16.—A sensational attempt, which has thus far been suppressed, was made a few days ago by William B. Douglass, a crazy man, to kill Rev. Paul C. Curnick, pastor of St. Paul's church.

Douglass sent for Curnick, took him to a rear room on the second floor of his residence, and told him that he was going to kill him. Curnick parleyed with him, and as a last resort got on his knees to pray.

The crazy man looked to heaven, and while doing this, Curnick moved on his knees to the door, and ran wildly down the stairs. Douglass pursued him to the street. He claimed Curnick had been telling Odd Fellow secrets. Curnick formerly preached at Price Hill, Cincinnati.

Douglass has been committed to the Dayton asylum.

Peculiar Accident at Wellsville, O.

WELLSVILLE, Jan. 16.—Sunday afternoon a crowd of about 15 boys, aged from 12 to 18 years, congregated under a large projecting rock on the hillside back of this city to engage in playing poker. They had kindled a fire, and the heat cracked the overhanging rock, and it fell without a moment's warning, crushing two of the boys named Hilaback and Laughlin, so they can not recover, and seriously injuring a number of the others.

Bismarck Again Ill.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—A Berlin dispatch to The Standard says that Bismarck's health is reported to be not quite satisfactory. Besides his old gastric disorder he has suffered recently from influenza. The attack appeared to pass quickly, but Dr. Schweninger was summoned to Friedrichsruhe on Friday.

Handcar Smashed.

MUNCIE, Ind., Jan. 16.—The south-bound passenger train on the Ft. W., L. & C. division of the Lake Erie and Western railway dashed into a handcar north of Eaton, tearing it to pieces. The Hartford City section men on the handcar saved themselves by jumping. A heavy fog caused the collision.

Killed by an Exploding Gun.

KENT, O., Jan. 16.—Sunday evening Frank Heckman, 35, of Muddy Lake, attempted to shoot a squirrel. The gun exploded, destroying his eyesight and fracturing his skull so that his life is despaired of. He has a wife and two children.

Hunter Injured.

BOURBON, Ind., Jan. 16.—Ed Phillips was seriously injured while hunting by the accidental discharge of a shotgun, the load tearing his thumb off, and inflicting ugly wounds on his shoulder and face. He may recover.

House Burned by an Incendiary.

LEON, Ky., Jan. 16.—Buck Justice's house, on Stinson creek, burned with all its contents, the family narrowly escaping cremation. It is considered the work of an incendiary.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

Bradstreet takes a hopeful view of the business outlook. In the weekly review Saturday, he said: "Special telegrams from leading trade centers bring evidence not only of much that is encouraging regarding the outlook, but that the tide has actually turned. It appears beyond question that the depression in industrial and commercial lines has for some time been at low ebb, and that a movement in the direction of an expansion of the volume of business has appeared."

"The pendulum which swung in one direction from May last until 1894 should soon be swinging in the opposite direction. Bradstreet points as evidence of that fact to the increase of 34 per cent. in the production of pig iron within three months, to an excess of deposits over payments at some of the largest savings banks in the United States, and to resumption of work at industrial establishments in all directions."

"In addition there is direct evidence that the tide is rising at various points."

COERCION.

The Cincinnati Enquirer has been industriously engaged for some time working up opposition to the Wilson bill, and has paraded under big headlines alleged protests against the measure. Federal Labor Union No. 5,335 of the Queen City took a hand in the fight last Friday night, and tells how some of these protests have been obtained. It unanimously adopted resolutions declaring that in its opinion the great majority of signatures, among workmen and employees, protesting against the bill, are obtained through what is practical coercion, the fear of losing their position in case of refusal to sign when requested by their employers to do so.

The protected classes are not going to give up a good thing if they can help it. It is an easy matter for them to get up protests in the manner referred to, but the Democrats in Congress are on to the scheme. Such protests will receive no consideration whatever.

A TELEGRAM from Grayson, Carter County, says: "An effort is being made to boom the candidacy of Hon. E. B. Wilhoit for Congress in this district, in opposition to Hon. T. H. Paynter." If it requires any "effort" to boom Mr. Wilhoit in his home county, it would be a wise thing for him to remain out of the fight.

SEVERAL manufactories at Birmingham have lately resumed, giving employment to about 4,000 hands, and at Florence iron mills have fired up after two years idleness. And all this, too, right in the face of the Wilson bill, which Republican ranters tell us will ruin the industries of the country. Some men, however, do not appear to think that way.

Death of Mrs. S. A. Payne.

Mrs. S. A. Payne, whose serious illness was mentioned in the BULLETIN last week, died at 3 o'clock this morning at the family residence on Main, Sixth ward. She was stricken with pneumonia several days ago, the attack finally terminating fatally.

Deceased was sixty-six years of age, and was a faithful Christian woman, having been a consistent member of the M. E. Church for a long time. Her husband and one son, Mr. John G. Payne, survive her.

Deceased was a sister of Mr. James Hayes, of Lewis County. The funeral will occur to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock. In the absence of Rev. D. P. Holt, pastor of the Third Street M. E. Church, the services will be conducted by Rev. R. G. Patrick.

GERMANTOWN.

Miss Della Thompson is visiting friends in Maysville.

John Harris has gone to Paris to engage in prize tobacco.

Miss Sallie Curry has returned and will again teach in the academy.

R. P. Thompson, of Maysville, spent several days in town last week.

Elder Saxby filled his first appointments at the Christian Church on Sunday.

Mrs. Lizzie Hunter, of Covington, is making a visit of several weeks with relatives in Mason.

Quarterly meeting will be held at the M. E. Church, South, next Saturday and Sunday, conducted by Rev. J. Reeves, Presiding Elder.

The literary society had quite an interesting meeting last Friday night. They are studying and analyzing the play of "Julius Caesar." Mrs. T. M. Dora was elected President and Miss Bertha Harris, Secretary. They are preparing for a public rehearsal to be held in one of the churches.

MT. GILEAD.

Thomas Cook has moved to the Joel DeBell farm.

B. H. Farrow is confined to his room with la grippe.

News items seem to be unusually scarce since the holidays.

John B. Farrow and wife are visiting friends and relatives in Ohio this week.

Geo. Saddler has moved to the Wm. Harrison farm, on the upper North Fork.

Aquilla Boots, who was reported as dangerously ill some weeks since, is now beyond hope of recovery.

Marion Tolle, Sr., of Maysville, has sold the farm upon which Gus Tolle lives to Mr. Knight, of near Washington.

Wheat is in a very promising condition, having made some growth along through the winter even to this late date.

Marion Tolle, Jr., and wife are quartered with B. H. Farrow until March, when they will move to the White farm near Stone Lick Church.

Quite a number of our villagers have been attending court in Flemingsburg. The suit of Goodman vs. France was decided in favor of defendant.

Tobacco stripping has been progressing finely during the last two weeks of soft weather, but farmers are not receiving much encouragement from buyers.

Martin DeBell, who died suddenly at A. D. Tolle's last Sunday week, was a half brother of Newton DeBell, whose body was taken from the Ohio river last fall.

Miss Jennie Fitch has applied for the spring school at Mt. Gilead. Miss Fitch has given entire satisfaction at Turner school house, where she is just closing a five-months' term.

Abner Bramel has a child four years old which is quite a curiosity, and is attracting much attention from the public. John Showan is exhibiting the little fellow to large crowds, and will shortly begin a tour of Ohio towns.

Allow me to prophesy that when the constitutional limitation to a session of the Legislature reaches its end, our law-makers will only be under good headway; and further, that in less than three years the Governor will have to call an extra session.

Our people are not taking much interest in the Mitchell-Corbett fight and generally sympathy seems to be in favor of Florida's Governor. We hail this as a sign that Miss Public Sentiment is gaining in health and moral strength, and hope the improvement may continue until she gets well.

Those who delight in politics are beginning to talk about chances for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district. Here on the border of Fleming, the home of Rolla K. Hart, sentiment seems to be largely in favor of "Fleming's favorite son." Go in, Rolla, you have just as much right there as any man in the district.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Notes and Comments by Mr. George W. Blatterman, County Superintendent.

MONTJOY, DISTRICT NO. 20.

The trustees are John A. Wells, Henry Adams and J. W. Holladay and good trustees. I found two of them at work about the school house, repairing steps, etc., and the consequence of their faithful management is apparent. When I visit No. 20 again I expect to find the house newly painted.

The teacher is Mr. C. D. Wells and his work is altogether satisfactory. The attendance was thirty-four, which is very good. Mr. Wells' conduct of the school is very satisfactory. I was pleased to find a good class in Smith's History of Kentucky and the recitation was very good.

SUMMIT SCHOOL, DISTRICT NO. 55.

Miss Midghall has charge of this school and is doing well. The attendance is too small for the number of scholars enrolled. The trustees are Messrs. Tucker, Case and Soward.

Miss Midghall's work gave satisfaction as far as I could judge from the very small number of scholars present. Parents should appreciate the effort now put forth by the State and by Mason County for the education of the children, when the education of each child is provided for at an expense of not less than $5 per capita. Were it not a compulsory attendance law is utterly at variance with a Republican form of government, I could advocate such a law. Let us all strive to create such a strong sentiment in favor of universal education, that parents will regard the education of their children as a necessity and feel under same obligation to see that they attend school as to feed and clothe them.

LAWSON SCHOOL, DISTRICT 113.

This is a colored district. The trustees are Addison Taylor, Alex. Montjoy and Horace Yates. Teacher, Miss Marilla Taylor. Miss Taylor has had several years experience and gives evidence of good work. She is an accomplished teacher, being a graduate from Hughes' High School in Cincinnati.

This school was not in session when I called, but I hear favorable reports and I was able to judge from personal inspection last year when I visited the school.

PERSONAL.

Miss Lucy M. Durrett has returned home from a visit in Central Kentucky.

Miss Jefferson, of Lexington, has been a guest of Miss Jessie Peed for several days.

Mrs. Webb Winter, of Renick, Ky., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Stockton L. Wood.

Mrs. Jesse Wilson, of Fayette County, is visiting her father, Mr. Thomas Kerr, and other relatives on Jersey Ridge.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. John Longnecker, of Nebraska, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Thomas Parry, near Washington.

Miss Mae Wood, of Forest avenue, has been the guest of the family of Mr. Wm. Roads, near Washington, for a few days.

A HOME WEDDING.

Mr. Charles Herman and Miss Mamie Agnes Niland Quietly Married This Morning.

The marriage of Miss Mamie Agnes Niland and Mr. Charles Herman was solemnized at 9 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Rosa Niland, of Sutton street.

Relatives of the couple and a few intimate friends were present. Rev. J. B. Glorieux, the venerable pastor of St. Patrick's Church, officiated.

The groom is a merchant of Chillicothe, O. His bride is a young lady of most estimable character, and is admired and loved by her many friends.

The couple left on the 10 o'clock train, and will spend a few days in Cincinnati before going to their home in Chillicothe.

MONEY to loan on real estate security.
W. T. COLE, agent.

SOME of the reports sent out from Frankfort regarding action of the United States Court in the matter of the big land claim, mention of which was made in the BULLETIN, were misleading. The court merely decided it had no jurisdiction in the case.

In affirming the case of Mullikin against Piles, taken up from Robertson County, the Court of Appeals says: "Where land was sold under a judgment enforcing a mortgage lien and a writ of possession issued in favor of the purchaser the debtor had no right to resist the execution of the writ upon the ground that there was an existing lien prior to that for which the land was sold, especially where the alleged lien is as stale as that which is claimed to exist in this case."

Ceylon Tea.

It appears that some of the Ceylon tea planters are making an organized attempt to obtain a sale for their tea-seed in the London market. A parcel of seven bags of that article was offered at the drug sales recently, but no one seemed to know what to do with it, and although the broker declared his belief that the drug was "a favorite medicine in China" the audience remained unmoved. Nevertheless the teased might have been worth purchasing for the sake of the bland oil which it contains, to the extent of about 85 per cent by weight, and which resembles olive oil in color and somewhat in taste. The seeds are about the size of a cherry stone, subglobular in shape and of a deep brown color. The oil would be useful for burning or lubricating.—London Chemist and Druggist.

Branding Criminals in China.

Finding that long terms of imprisonment and flogging do not check robbery and piracy and systematic practice of imposition on strangers in the nature of thievery in the Soochow district, the authorities have resolved to try branding. For the first offense the thief is to be branded on the right cheek, and for the second on the left cheek. The brand is to be the Chinese sign for the word thief. As the Chinese have a superstitious horror of all facial disfigurement, the belief is entertained that the new punishment will check the criminal element.—Sacramento Record-Union.

The Pullman Brothers.

Albert Denton Pullman, George M. Pullman's brother, who died near Chicago recently, was the mechanical genius of the family that have made their fame in the manufacture of sleeping cars. Understanding as he did every part of the art of cabinet making, he was able to superintend all the details in the construction department of the great Pullman industry. There are four brothers surviving—George M. Pullman of Chicago, the Rev. B. H. Pullman of Baltimore, the Rev. James M. Pullman of Lynn, Mass., and Charles L. Pullman of Chicago.—Exchange.

The Glutton Lakes.

Navigation of the great lakes during the season of 1893 resulted in the loss of 123 lives. The number of vessels lost was 53, with an aggregate tonnage of 24,258 and valued at $1,040,400. Partial losses by strandings, collisions and fires bring the total up $2,112,588. The shallow waters of Lake Erie claimed nearly half the lives lost, Lake Huron being second.—New York Tribune.

THE HILES BILL.

Bracken County's Representative Believes in Compulsory Education.

Full Text of the Measure Now Pending in The Legislature On This Subject.

The question of compulsory education has been agitated in Kentucky for a number of years, but no actual attempt has been made to enact a law on the subject until now. Hon. J. B. Hiles, the young member from Bracken County, has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives looking to this end, and is working hard to secure its passage.

The following is a copy of the bill, which was on Saturday reported to the House by the committee without an expression of opinion, but which was ordered to its second reading:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That every parent, guardian or other person in the State of Kentucky having the control of any child or children, between the ages of seven (7) and fourteen (14) years, shall annually be required to send such child or children at least twenty (20) weeks, sixteen weeks of which attendance shall be consecutive, to some public or private day school. Provided, however, that this act shall not apply in any case when the child has been or is being taught at home in such branches as are taught in the public schools, for a like period of time and subject to the same examination as other pupils of the district or city in which the child resides; or whose physical or mental condition renders his or her attendance impracticable or inexpedient; or who is excused by the Trustees of the school district, or the Board of Education of the city in which the parent, guardian or person having control resides, upon its being shown to their satisfaction that the parent, guardian or the person having control was not able by reason of poverty to clothe such child properly; or that he or she has already acquired the ordinary branches required by law; or that there is no school taught within two (2) miles by the nearest traveled road.

Sec. 2. Any parent, guardian or other person failing to comply with the provisions of this act shall forfeit to the use of the public schools in the city, town or common school district in which such child resides a sum not less than five (5) nor more than twenty (20) dollars for the first offense, nor less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) dollars for the second and every subsequent offense, and costs of suit.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of any school trustee or the President of the Board of Education to inquire into all cases of complaint and neglect of the duty prescribed in this act and shall notify in writing the parent, guardian or other person so offending, that such complaint had been made, and if cause be not shown within five (5) days to at once proceed against the responsible person as hereby provided; and any school trustee or President of the Board of Education neglecting to secure such prosecution for such offense within ten (10) days after a written notice has been served on him by any taxpayer in said district or city, unless the person so complained of shall be excused by the District or City Board of Education for reasons herein before stated, shall forfeit to the use of the public school in the city, town or common school district in which said Trustee or President of the Board of Education resides, a sum not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) dollars.

Sec. 4. Any person having control of a child, who, with intent to evade the provisions of this act, shall make a willfully false statement concerning the age of such child or the time such child has attended school, shall for such offense forfeit a sum not less than five (5) nor more than twenty (20) dollars, for the use of the public schools for such city, town, village or district.

Sec. 5. Any fine and penalty mentioned in this act may be sued for and recovered before any court of record or Justice of the Peace of the proper county in the name of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, for the use of the public schools of the city, town, village or district in which said child resides.

Sec. 6. That upon the trial of any offense as charged herein, if upon such trial it shall be determined that such prosecution was malicious, then the cost in such case shall be adjudged against the complainant and collected as fines in other cases.

Sec. 7. The conditions and provisions of this act shall apply to any parent, guardian or person having control of any colored child or children in like manner as in sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6; but no white child shall be compelled to attend or become a pupil in any school for colored children, and no colored child shall be compelled to attend or become a pupil in any school for white children.

A POPULAR PASTOR TO WED.

The Marriage of Rev. T. W. Watts of This City and Miss Rosa V. Fitch of Winchester.

The marriage of Rev. T. W. Watts and Miss Rosa V. Fitch is announced to take place at the home of the bride's father, in Winchester, Ky., on the 31st of this month.

Mr. Watts is the pastor of the M. E. Church, South, of this city, having taken that charge last September. He is a preacher of unusual power and eloquence and greatly beloved by his congregation.

The bride-elect is the accomplished daughter of Rev. J. W. Fitch, D.D., Presiding Elder of the Shelbyville district, one of the best-known and most prominent ministers of the Kentucky conference. He had charge of the Maysville district some years ago.

A PROTRACTED meeting will begin to-night at Mitchell's Chapel, Sixth ward, and will continue every night this week. Services will commence at 6:30 o'clock. Professor Fogg, one of the finest cornetists in the State, will lead the singing. All invited.

STEVE BARKLEY attacked Harry Cole in John Carrington's store at Vanceburg Saturday night and was knocked down. Barkley then drew his revolver and fired a shot at Cole's head. Cole returned the compliment by pulling a long, keen dirk from his boot-leg and slashed Barkley one cut that ran from one ear to the other, laying open a horrible gash and nearly reaching the jugular. Barkley received another cut in the back of the neck, and two in the head. The victim of the terrible cuts then went to the bar-room and took several drinks, while the blood poured in torrents from his ghastly wounds. Cole escaped, while his victim was taken to jail on the charge of carrying deadly weapons.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Bill Pending to Amend Fourth Class City Charters—Number of Bills Introduced to Date.

Among the bills now pending in the Senate is one to amend the charter for fourth class cities. The bill provides for both white and colored School Boards, and corrects inconsistencies of the present charter in relation to schools.

Senator Dingus offered a bill relating to the practice of medicine. It provides that every practitioner shall have a certificate from the State Board of Health. This certificate shall be granted when the applicant has a diploma from any reputable college of medicine in this State or out of it, or when he has been engaged in reputable practice without a diploma since February 23, 1884.

Up to Monday, 93 bills had been introduced in the House and 76 in the Senate. This makes a total of 169 new bills, exceeding a third of the bills which came before the last Legislature, which was in session eighteen months.

The Courier-Journal correspondent says: "Dr. E. M. Guber, of Frankfort, had an audience Saturday with the House Committee on Public Health. He argued against the law requiring physicians to go before the Secretary of State to get a diploma, and spoke at some length against the section which prohibits 'itinerant physicians' from registering and qualifying to practice in any county in the State."

THEATRICAL EXCURSIONS.

The C. and O. Will Run Its First to Cincinnati January 24—Round Trip $1.50.

On Wednesday, January 24th, the C. and O. Railway will run its first theatrical excursion of the season to Cincinnati. Tickets will be good going on all regular trains on this date, and returning on special train leaving Cincinnati at 11:20 p. m. Round trip rate from Maysville, only $1.50. Following is list of attractions at all theatres:

Walnut Street Theatre—Cordelia Opera Company in a repertoire of opera, with a company of 100 people.

Grand Opera House—Charles Hoyt's latest farce-comedy, "A Milk White Flag," which has created a furore everywhere.

Havlin's Theatre—Bartley Campbell's greatest production, "A White Slave."

Henck's Opera House—"The Ivy Leaf."

Robinson's Opera House—"Enemies of Life."

People's Theatre—Dixon's Specialty Company, introducing Geo. Dixon, Featherweight Champion of the World.

Fountain Theatre—High Class Vaudeville.

Wednesday being regular matinee day, this will give parties going on this excursion an opportunity of visiting both afternoon and evening performances.

The management has made arrangements for a 75 cent dinner or supper at a first-class hotel at the nominal rate of 35 cents. A card bearing bill of fare will be presented to you by the agent, entitling you to the reduction. For further particulars, see small bills, or address nearest ticket agent.

"A Stranger"

"A new broom sweeps clean," is a saying as old as it is true. Arthur Deming, of minstrel fame, has introduced this new broom into minstrelsy by allying his forces with Sweet & DeCoursey's Farce Comedy Co., an organization entirely new for this season; an infusion of new blood and new ideas that will please the public. There is no performer so popular, no performer so gifted but that manager and artist are both benefited by an occasional change. Hence, this monster alliance. Two complete shows in one. A harmonious blending of modern minstrelsy and progressive farce comedy. A veritable carnival of mirth, music and melody. The artists are the best, including among others the eagerly sought for musical monarchs, Sparks and Hiatt, the Imperial Quartette, Boston Mandolin Sextette, troupe of French skirt and quadrille dancers and a host of vocalists and comedians whose names are familiar to the public. And then there's Arthur Deming. We all know "The Emperor," and it goes without saying that "A Stranger" is a novelty and one that will test the capacity of theatres throughout the country.

At the opera house next Saturday night.

"RUNNING AWAY FROM OUR OWN SOCIETY." This will be the subject of Rev. E. B. Cake's discourse at the Christian Church to-night. Services commence promptly at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody cordially invited, and the members of the church are urged to be present. The attendance last night was very good, considering the inclement weather. The speaker was in one of his happiest moods, and the sermon, from Matthew, fifth chapter, thirteenth to sixteenth verses inclusive,—"Ye are the salt of the earth;" "the light of the world"—was one of the most eloquent ever delivered in this house of worship.

REAR-END RAILROAD COLLISION

An Accommodation Train Dashes Into an Express on the Essex Branch of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Near Hoboken, New Jersey—A List of the Dead and Injured.

HOBOKEN, N. J., Jan. 16.—About two miles from Hoboken, and a few hundred feet from the drawbridge across the Hackensack river, at 8:20 a. m., the Orange accommodation crashed into the rear of the Dover express on the Morrison and Essex branch of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad.

The scene of the accident was on the long meadows, through which flows the Hackensack river. At least nine lives paid the penalty of someone's carelessness and the list of known injured is 37, some of whom will probably die. So far as learned, one cause of the accident was the heavy fog which prevailed. Both trains were well filled with passengers on their way to their daily advocations and it seems a miracle that the death list was not increased manifold.

The Dover express had slowed up to make sure that the drawbridge did not realize the situation, but in the next the shrieks of the wounded and dying and the noise of escaping steam told them that an awful calamity had occurred. Those who were not injured were quickly at work rescuing their less fortunate fellow passengers. Along the tracks the dead and dying and wounded lay strewn. Some of them had rolled to the bottom of the 15-foot embankment on which the accident occurred.

A short distance from the scene was a railroad telegraph office, and from this a hurried call was sent for assistance. Relief trains were immediately started, and before those on the train had realized the situation they had arrived and a crowd had already gathered. Ambulances and physicians were also sent by police from both Jersey City and here. In the smoker every seat was occupied, and it is estimated that of the 40 passengers in the car not one escaped uninjured.

After a few minutes something like order was followed in the work of rescue and the victims were rapidly taken out from amongst the twisted iron and splintered timbers. The dead were so covered with dust and blood that it was almost impossible to identify them. The cries and moans of the injured were terrible. As soon as the wrecking train arrived such heavy parts as could be easily removed were lifted from the track and then the work of rescue was soon completed.

The wounded and dead were placed on the train and taken to Jersey City. Ambulances were there in readiness and those of the wounded who were unable to go home were taken to the hospitals. The dead were taken to the different morgues to await identification.

The most authentic account show nine killed, while the injured number 37. The dead are as follows:

Will Fergusson, 55 years of age; Summit, N. J.
William R. Adams, age unknown; married; leaves a widow and five children; Summit, N. J.

William Turner, Basking Ridge, N. J.
Edward Kinsey, Barnardsville, N. J.
John Fish, 55, married, Summit, N. J.
Walter K. Purinton, 35, married, Short Hill, N. J.

John H. Rimmer, 35, married, Summit, N. J.
P. J. Ryan, Milburn, N. J.
Edwin Morell, Summit, N. J.

The injured are as follows:

David Hoffman, 45, married, South Orange, N. J.

Arthur Gardner, 39, married, Short Hills, N. J.; seriously.

Theodore F. White, 32, married, Summit, N. J.; will probably die.

Christopher Arnold, 25, married, Newark.

Harry S. Cowan, 28, single, Basking Ridge, N. J.

Edward N. Clarke, 33, married, Basking Ridge, N. J.

George Spencer, 34, married, Murray Hill, N. J.

Frederick Fergusson, 25, single, Summit, N. J.; will probably die.

W. J. Rusting, Jr., 19, single, Newark.

Charles H. Minchep, 27, single, Summit, N. J.

Ernest Thaffee, 20, single, Basking Ridge, N. J.

Carl H. Schultz, Jr., 24, single, Murray Hill, N. J.; will probably die.

W. M. Gastonhaws, 27, single, Summit, N. J.

Washington Irving, Short Hills, N. J.

William Roales, Newark.

E. W. Gray, West Summit, N. J.; seriously.

Katherine Keenan, New York city.

A. Tupper, New York city.

Miss Jessie Archer, New York.

Charles Arnold, Newark; D. Cameron, Newark; William Ryan, Milburn, N. J., and J. Renwick are also reported among the killed, but no one has been able to locate them in Jersey City, and the railroad officials deny that either of them were taken to Newark.

Mr. A. Reasoner, the general superintendent of the road, was seen, but would not, or could not give any explanation of the cause of the disaster.

ENGINE GOES THROUGH A BRIDGE.

Seven of the Eight Men on Board Were Drowned.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Jan. 16.—News has reached this city of a terrible railway accident on a narrow gauge road near Casandero. A locomotive was detached from a train and run down the track to investigate any damage which might have been done to bridges by washouts.

The locomotive crossed the bridge over Austin creek in safety, but on returning, the piling having been undermined, the locomotive crashed through the bridge. Seven of the eight men on board were drowned.

Conductor Baker saved himself by jumping from the pilot.

Names of the drowned:

Tom Gould, postmaster, Cazadero; leaves wife and five children.

John Rich, no family.

Engineer Briggs.

Fireman Collisten.

Frank Hart, formerly of Examiner; proprietor Cazadero hotel.

William Brarmer, clerk at hotel, leaves wife and children.

Mr. Sabine, station agent, leaves wife and one child.

Only two bodies have been recovered.

CLEVER AND UNIQUE.

A Counterfeit $50 Bill That Is a Pen and Ink Sketch on Government Paper.

Thomas T. Callahan of the government secret service department was in Brooklyn the other day looking for an exceedingly clever counterfeiter, who recently counterfeited a $50 bill, using only pen and ink. The paper was the regular silk fiber paper, made only by the government. The counterfeit bill was passed on a New York bank and was only detected when it reached the treasury and it was found that the word "Series" had been omitted. There is no clue to the artist.

This unique counterfeiter is supposed to be a man who has for years defied the efforts of the United States secret service officers to detect him. There are specimens of his work on exhibition in Washington. His work has always been so perfect that it was almost impossible to detect a bill he made from the genuine article. It is all done with a pen and ink and on the same quality paper that is used in the genuine bills.

The great difficulty in the way of his capture is that he has no tools. He is an artist. He sits down and draws a bill as an artist draws a picture. Even if he was captured in his room with a bill in his possession, there might be no evidence to convict him, as he could say he had received it from somebody else. It must require a long time for him to complete a single bill, and the skill he displays at his work is an indication that if he devoted his talents to honest employment he would make more money.

Transatlantic Mail Service.

The discussion of the question of American mail routes, which is perennially revived in the English newspapers, has at last taken a common sense turn.

The British postal authorities are being roundly denounced because they refuse to send the mails in fast steamers unless they carry the British flag. Twice last month the Saturday mails were sent on a slow Cunarder, when they might have reached New York two days earlier if dispatched by the American line. The fast German boats leaving Southampton on Sunday and Thursday get no mail, except specially addressed correspondence.

The British authorities persist in limiting the mails to America to two per week, although four weekly mails are sent from New York. The protest is becoming so loud that it is barely possible that a reform may be effected in the course of time.—London Cable.

Ancient, but Lively.

Friends inclined to regard Father Crow of the Hess road as an old man probably do not know what they are talking about. We have proof in point. In addition to performing ministerial and other good Methodist work enough to weigh down an ordinary man, Father Crow recently and just for a flier and a little exercise himself tore down 150 rods of rail fence, dug postholes the whole way and put up a brand new fence. We suppose he is over 70 years of age, but if any one wants a good workman—whether it is preaching or doing hard manual labor—we recommend Father Crow.—Lockport Journal.

DRIVEN FIVE BLOCKS BY A CORPSE.

John Smith, While Dead, Sits Erect and Holds His Reins Taut.

When John Smith, a driver for Heisler & Junge, bakers, was making a delivery at Twenty-fourth and State streets Monday afternoon, he met his friend H. F. McDowell of the town of Lake. Smith and McDowell stood talking by the wagon, at the edge of the sidewalk, when Smith suddenly complained of feeling ill. He pressed his hand to his breast and seemed for a moment to have difficulty in breathing. Then, saying he was better, but that he ought to go home at once, he asked McDowell to jump in the wagon and ride with him. Smith's house was at 4,325 Atlantic street.

Smith got in with his usual agility, and McDowell followed. Swinging his horse's head around as he picked up the lines and heading them south, Smith chirruped and the wagon rattled off at a lively pace. The bakery wagon seat has a bread box behind it, against which the driver's head can lean in a practically upright position. Smith got sick again as the team started and was disinclined to talk. Near Thirty-fourth street he pulled his hat a little over his eyes, and getting the horses well started again he relapsed into silence. Not wishing to disturb his friend McDowell looked about as the wagon rattled on south at a rapid pace. The horses were headed homeward, and McDowell thought it was their recklessness which caused the wagon to sway two or three times and now and then pass uncomfortably close to another vehicle's wheels. Smith held the reins taut. He did not speak, but sat stiffly with his head hard against the bread box. From under his lowered hat his eyes stared directly ahead. Dusk slightly veiled his features, and though McDowell thought several times that Smith was entirely too oblivious to danger he did not speak to him until they reached Thirty-ninth street and Riverton avenue.

Then he asked Smith how he felt. There was no reply. McDowell shook Smith's arm. Still the man did not move. McDowell, still grasping the arm, bent close to Smith's face and gazed into the fixed eyes, but they did not move. With a start he realized that he had been driven five blocks by a corpse.—Chicago Herald.

AN ISLAND THAT GROWS.

Once It Belonged to Missouri, but Now It Is Part of Kansas.

In the Missouri river, near Leavenworth, there is an island which has furnished the land law officers of the government a novel problem. This island was on the Missouri side when it was surveyed in 1858. Now it is a legal part of Kansas. But that is not the queer thing about it. Islands in the Missouri frequently shift their allegiance.

The trouble with this island is that it has been growing. When the government officers surveyed it, they found 500 acres, and that was the amount entered in the records. When two Leavenworth men, Skillings and Diffendorf, took out patents for the whole island the amount of land put in the patents was 500 acres. But the island has been growing through all of these years in a way Missouri river islands have a fashion of doing. There are now 1,400 acres in the island. A coalbed, it has been discovered, runs under the island, and that tends to make the land more valuable.

Recently squatters have tried to take possession of the surplus over and above the 500 acres claimed by the patentees. The later set up a claim to the growth. The land lawyers of the government, after taking plenty of time to think about the case, have decided that Skillings and Diffendorf are entitled to the whole island under their original patents.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Jackson Park.

During the entire summer of 1894 the main exhibition buildings will stand in Jackson park. The public will be admitted everywhere in the park free. The work of beautifying the park will progress steadily. On the first day of the new year the park commissioners assumed control. All state and foreign buildings will be out of the north end of the grounds by May 1. The commissioners will at once begin the work of restoring that end of the park to its former appearance and continue to improve it. What may be done with the buildings the following year cannot be said. The board will take no action on that matter for some time.—Chicago Letter.

Ex-Cabinet Officers in the Senate.

There are an even half dozen ex-cabinet officers in the senate, and they comprise some pretty able men. Only one of the six is a Democrat, and that is Vilas of Wisconsin, who played the dual role of secretary of the interior and postmaster general during the first Cleveland reign. Proctor of Vermont was the warrior of the Harrison administration, Chandler of New Hampshire was secretary of the navy under Arthur, and Teller of Colorado secretary of the interior under the same regime. Cameron of Pennsylvania was secretary of war under President Grant, and John Sherman was President Hayes' financier.—Boston Advertiser.

Valuable Horse Burned.

ELWOOD, Ind., Jan. 16.—A $4,000 barn belonging to Lewis Heffner, situated four miles north of this city, was destroyed by fire, together with grain, hay and farming implements. A fine stallion, valued at $2,000, perished in the flames. The loss on the barn and its contents is covered by insurance.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Complete Manhood

and how to attain it.

At last a medical work that tells the causes, describes the effects, points the remedy. This is scientifically the most valuable, artistically the most beautiful, medical book that has appeared for years; 96 pages, every page bearing a half-tone illustration in tints. Some of the subjects treated are Nervous Debility, Impotency, Sterility, Development, Varicocele, The Husband, Those Intending Marriage, etc. Every man who would know the grand truths, the plain facts, the old secrets, and the new discoveries of medical science as applied to married life, who would atone for past follies and avoid future pitfalls, should write for this wonderful little book. It will be sent free, under seal. Ask the publishers, Erie Medical Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
